

Hebrews 5 & 6

To Teach and be Taught the Best Subject

As you can see on your papers there is a subject, and then there is a blank space underneath it. You're going to fill in each blank with bible verses and everything you may know or remember about each subject. Even if you have a question, put it in there!

And then you're going to come together and discuss what each of you knows about each subject. Move on when you feel you have exhausted the subject. Don't worry about getting every one. And don't ever gloat about knowledge, but share openly with each other. You may be surprised about how much each of you knows when you put your heads together.

Pray out at around 9:00

1. What are ALL of the "Church Answers"? Why would someone decide to lean on the church answers instead of diving into the word to discover the harder truths?

2. Repentance:

Weekly Challenge:

Study on your own, Hebrews 6:4-8.

Come back Sunday ready to discuss this passage! Bonus points to studying with one of your leaders, or with one of your fellow students before Sunday.

Shawn has some awesome study tools for you this week if you dare to be challenged!
